

Mac Duine/Mac Duibhne - Caimbeul / Campbell

CFIS, pg. 72

The chief kindred of the Cineal Loairn were the Clann Duibhne, or Campbells, the MacGillways and MacInneses, the Cineal Baodan, or MacLeans, the MacNaughtens, the MacNabs, the Clan Hattan, and the Camerons, MacGillonies, MacMartins and MacSorleys.

The Clann Duibhne or Campbells (Caimbeul), the most powerful clan in Argyle and one of the most powerful in Scotland, descend from the marriage of Gillespick MacDuibhne and the heiress of Lochawe. The Campbells became infamous for their political pragmatism, which led them to commit acts of brutality and treachery against neighboring clans, notably the MacGregors and the MacDonalds of Glencoe.

©Patricia Adams, Nov 2001.